During coming months, a series of "summits" will be held in various cities in North Dakota. The summits are an opportunity for all interested persons to discuss issues affecting people with developmental disabilities. The summits are sponsored by members of the Developmental Disabilities Network – the North Dakota Center for Persons with Disabilities (NDCPD), the North Dakota Protection and Advocacy Project (P&A) and the North Dakota State Council on Developmental Disabilities (SCDD).

Each summit will address emphasis areas for the three programs, including topics such as housing, recreation, employment, and more. Tentative topics, dates and locations for the summer are listed below. More information will be added as plans are finalized, or you can call Karen Pearson at 701-328-3954 or 1-800-472-2670.
